PRESS RELEASE

RPG Life Sciences revenue stands at Rs 65 crore

- Focus on building a long-term portfolio
- Expanding new businesses & investing in new products and people

Mumbai, February 1, 2017: RPG Life Sciences Ltd. (RPGLS), part of the RPG Group, engaged in manufacturing and marketing of pharmaceutical products, has announced the unaudited financial results for the quarter ending December 31, 2016.

The company's net sales stood at Rs 65 crore for Q3 FY17. Profit after tax came in at Rs 0.55 crore as against Rs 3.47 crore last year*. The company's sales on a 9-month period rose 16% on a like-to-like basis (without biotech business) to stand at Rs 220 crore. PBT for the period surged by 47% to stand at 13.17 crore on a like-to-like basis (without Biotech business).

During the quarter, the company integrated the recently-acquired Sun Pharma brands into their portfolio. It also invested in expansion of field force and marketing in the new segments.

"Our performance in domestic and international market continues to be strong. The third quarter is in line with our expectations. We invested significant effort and resources in building-up stocks and marketing of the acquired brands. We are witnessing good traction from the doctors and expect these brands to fuel good part of our growth. We also continue to work on our international product and manufacturing plans. We are well on course to close this year on a strong note." commented Mr CT Renganathan, Managing Director, RPG Life Sciences Ltd.
